Lynn,

I can find reference to certain studies being "after the lit cutoff date". I cannot find a clear statement some where that there is a lit cutoff date nor a statement as to why it is 2010.

I think it needs to go into the NOTE to reviewers.

We could delete mention of OPP, then the text would read:

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

David

So did David's edits to the table get made and the final paragraph of the language get sorted out? And what we are left with is reference to phase 1 in the front language of this appendix?

Sounds good. I am holding the latest versions of the documents and am tracking through to make sure the edits are appropriately incorporated into the HERO and HERONet versions.

I think we are looking good :)

Samantha and Lynn,

Email seems to be working as a way to resolve final points. It feels like we should be almost done with the checking. (Thank you, Lynn!)

I think I have responded where needed, but if not let me know!
